

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE

STATE CAPITOL
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA
95814

Joint Hearing
Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Subcommittee No. 2 on Resources, Environmental Protection and Energy and Assembly Budget Subcommittee No. 3 on Resources

Senator Kuehl and Assembly Member Pavley, Chairs

March 4, 2005
9:00 am – 12:15 pm
Del Rey Yacht Club
13900 Palawan Way, Marina del Rey

Informational Hearing: Economic and Social Value of Keeping California's Air, Coast, and Ocean Clean

I. Opening Remarks

II. Coast and Ocean

a. Re-Envisioning Ocean/Shore Relationships

i. Improving Ocean/Shore Relationships

Dorothy Green, Founding President, Heal the Bay

President Emeritus, Los Angeles &

San Gabriel Rivers Watershed Council

ii. Clean Beaches and Water: L.A.'s Vision for Proposition O

Cecilia Estolano, Chair

Citizen Oversight Committee for Proposition O

b. Economic Value of Our Coast and Ocean

Misti Kerns, Executive Director

Santa Monica Convention & Visitors Bureau

c. Cleaning Up Our Coast And Ocean: Successes And Challenges

David Nahai, Member, Regional Water Quality Control Board

Vice Chair, Santa Monica Bay Restoration Commission

Mark Gold, Executive Director, Heal the Bay

Tracy Egoscue, Executive Director, Santa Monica Baykeeper

David Beckman, Senior Attorney and Director

Coastal Water Project, Natural Resources Defense Council

d. California's Identity

Yvon Chouinard, President and Founder, Patagonia

III. Air Quality and Environmental Health

a. Diesel Emissions Reduction in California

Gail Ruderman Feuer, Natural Resources Defense Council

b. Health Impacts of Air Pollution

Martha Arguello, Director of Health and Environment

Physicians for Social Responsibility, Los Angeles

Ed Avol, Professor and Co-Director

Exposure Assessment Core; Preventative Medicine

Keck School of Medicine, USC

c. Hot Spots: Community Impacts of Air Pollution

Jerilyn Lopez Mendoza, Environmental Defense

d. A Clean Air Vision for Southern California

Todd Campbell, Coalition for Clean Air

IV. Public Comment

V. Closing Remarks